

The Gospel of the King

The Compassionate Shepherd

Mark 6:30-44 (ESV)

What this passage tells us about Jesus:

He is the _____ ...

He will tend his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms; he will carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young. - Isaiah 40:11

He is more than _____ (Numbers 11:21-23)

He exceeds _____ (1 Kings 17:8-16, 2 Kings 4:42-44)

He calls us to an _____ ...

"Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food.

- Isaiah 55:1-2

He is the _____ ...

He _____ us to be HIS _____. (Psalm 100:3)

He _____ us and our needs intimately. (Ezekiel 34:1-6)

He _____ for us and _____ for us. (Psalm 23)

We _____ from Him by _____ against him. (Isaiah 53:6)

He _____ and _____ us by _____ for us. (John 10:11-15)

Implications for us:

The solution to our helpless, hurting, hopeless condition is _____.

If you are a Christian, you _____ and can _____ what people need most.

Sometimes we need more than just a _____ from life's struggles. We need to see _____.

We may not even _____ a miracle is happening right now around us, but God is always _____.

The conclusion:

Jesus does more than _____ bread. He _____ bread.

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst." - John 6:35
