

The Gospel of the King

The Authority of Jesus

Mark 11:27-33 (ESV)

The Context: Jesus' clearing the Temple (Mark 11:15-19)

The Confrontation: A delegation of the Sanhedrin

Their question? By what _____... who gave you _____ ...?

Jesus' counter-question: John's baptism* ... from _____ or from _____?

If they answer "heaven" ...

If the answer "man" ...

Their answer: " _____ ".

What we learn from this encounter:

God was calling the nation back to Himself through _____ and _____. The Temple was no longer necessary.

If _____ was sent from God (he was), then his _____ came from God (it did), and therefore _____ was also sent from God (he was), and his _____ is true (it is), and he has _____ (he does).

The critical issue of _____ to believe and _____ to follow is _____.

From _____?

If Jesus and his authority is derived from heaven, then ...

From _____?

If Jesus and his authority is derived from men, then ...

The biggest barrier to faith for many _____ over them. Following Christ requires _____.

Feigned _____ is not a 'safe' place to land.

My response today: