

The Gospel of the King

The Worship of the Unworthy

Mark 14:1-9

Context and contrast ... the Murderous Scheming of the Religious Elite

A display of _____ and _____ ...

The solution to their dilemma would be _____ ...

A Woman's Profound Outpouring of Worship:

John's Gospel identifies the woman as _____, and also notes that _____ was present. (John 12:2-3)

To Mary, Jesus was of _____ worth.

The right response to the full realization of God's grace and our salvation is _____!

John also reveals the complaining malcontent as _____. (Matthew 26:8 merely notes "the disciples".)

To Judas, Jesus was of _____ worth.

Where the worth of Jesus is not known and valued, we'll _____ for anything we find more 'valuable' or 'worthwhile'.

Jesus' Response: "Leave her alone".

Why?

Jesus understood both her _____ and their _____.

They did not understand the _____.

There is a _____ here far more wonderful than you yet see.

The Gospel on Display:

The means: Our _____ is possible because of His _____.

It is not His _____ that saves us, but His _____.

The message: Jesus receives the _____ of the _____. Jesus is _____ of our _____.
