

The Gospel of the King

You Will See Him!

Prelude to Resurrection:

Mark 15:42-47

The way Mark reports the burial is significant: He is "_____ " that Jesus was really dead.

_____ of Arimathea had Jesus's body wrapped up and sealed it in a tomb.

A Roman _____ (who would be an expert) bore witness of Jesus's death to _____ (who had legal authority in the matter).

Finally, two _____ are cited as eyewitnesses to the burial.

The eyewitnesses made it clear that his _____ was _____.

Why this matters:

Jesus died as if he was a wicked man, but he was in fact _____ (Isaiah 53:9).

Jesus necessarily had to taste death for everyone to _____ for sins (Hebrews 2:9).

Jesus had to destroy _____ itself by his death (Hosea 13:14).

Jesus' _____ required his death (1 Cor. 15:3-5).

The Unexpected Empty Tomb:

Mark 16:1-5

With no expectation of encountering anything other than _____ there, three women come to show their love and devotion to Jesus. Their only concern was _____ – how will they get to his body?

When they arrive, they encounter an _____ who serves as the _____ to what human eyes could not see, but what was witnessed by heaven – Jesus was raised!

The Best Words You're Ever Going to Hear:

Mark 16:6-7

You will see him ... and know that _____ he spoke was _____.

You will see him ... and realize that being _____ to him was _____ it.

You will see him ... and understand that he really was working _____ for your _____.

You will see him ... and find that _____ and _____ did not have the _____.

You will see him ... and celebrate that _____ truly was _____.

You will see him ... and recognize that there was _____ in all the world that _____ to him and that _____ is even _____ than you _____!

Conclusion: We'll All See Him.

Revelation 1:4-7

For some, we'll see _____.

For others, they'll see _____.

What will you see?
